

I am writing to urge you to vote to save Net Neutrality. The open and free internet is a cornerstone of American democracy. A vote to end it is a vote against the American people. Please protect our small business from the greedy ISPs. Americans already pay more for less internet than our European counterparts. Please don't make this worse. The FCC should work for the American people, not against them. Please reconsider your vote to hurt the American people.